

PGY-1: Pharmacy Practice

Olivia Dumont, PharmD
Melody Kwang-Mabial, PharmD
Rabeya Molla, PharmD
Christian Zitelli, PharmD

PGY-2: Solid Organ Transplant

Adina Petrosan

PGY-2: Oncology

Stephanie Wo

PGY-1 Pharmacy Residents

Dr. Olivia Dumont is from Westchester, NY. She completed her Doctor of Pharmacy degree at the University Of Connecticut School Of Pharmacy. Her professional interests include pediatrics and infectious diseases. She plans to pursue a PGY-2 in pediatrics with the hopes of becoming a clinical pediatric pharmacist and having the opportunity to precept students and residents. Outside of pharmacy, Olivia loves baking and trying out new restaurants around NYC.

Dr. Melody Kwang-Mabial was born and raised in Port-Gentil, Gabon. She graduated from Texas Southern University with a Bachelor of Science in Dietetics and Nutrition and obtained her Doctorate degree from Touro College of Pharmacy in New York. Through her residency, she aims to gain exposure to a diverse patient population, complex disease cases, teaching and research, which will allow her to grow as a well-rounded clinical pharmacist as she plans to complete a PGY-2 in Infectious diseases. Outside of pharmacy, Melody enjoys running, cycling and recently started learning how to play Cello.

Dr. Rabeya Molla is from Queens, NY. She has completed her Doctor of Pharmacy degree at Long Island University in Brooklyn, NY. Her professional interests include immunosuppressive treatment regimens, oncologic emergencies, and chemotherapy-induced toxicities. She plans to pursue a PGY-2 in either oncology or transplant. Her future goals include practicing as a specialist on an interdisciplinary team and precepting students and residents. Outside of the hospital Rabeya enjoys traveling, and trying new restaurants in New York City.

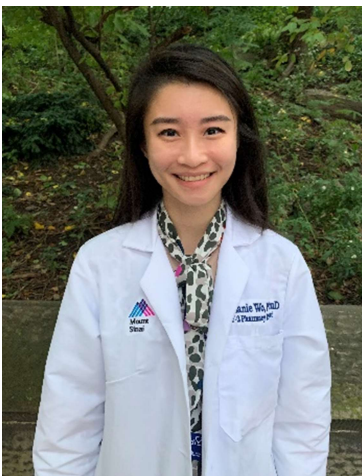

Dr. Christian Zitelli is from Ramsey, New Jersey. She completed her Doctor of Pharmacy degree at The University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy. Her interests include solid organ transplant and infectious diseases. She is interested in pursuing a PGY2 so she can fulfill her goal of becoming a specialized clinical pharmacist. Outside of pharmacy, Christian enjoys traveling, exploring New York City, and spending time with her family and friends.

PGY-2 Pharmacy Residents

Dr. Adina Petrosan is from Newington, Connecticut and graduated in 2019 with her Doctorate of Pharmacy from MCPHS University in Boston, Massachusetts. She completed her PGY-1 residency at Yale New Haven Hospital, and is the current PGY-2 Solid Organ Transplant Resident. Her current interests include opportunistic infections, diabetes management and cardiac allograft vasculopathy. Her future goals include obtaining her board certification and practicing at a large teaching hospital, alongside residents, fellows, and students. Outside of pharmacy, Adina enjoys exploring new cities, trying new cuisines and spending time with family.

Dr. Stephanie Wo is from New Jersey and graduated in 2019 with her Doctorate of Pharmacy from Rutgers, Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy in Piscataway, New Jersey. She completed her PGY-1 residency at NYU Langone Health, and is the current PGY-2 Hematology/Oncology Resident at the Mount Sinai Hospital. Her current interests include malignant hematology, chemotherapy and immunotherapy induced toxicities, and medication safety.